Senate Would Limit President to a Single Term of Six Years

Washington.—A constitutional amendment which would restrict the president of the United States to a single term of six years, and would bar Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft from seeking election again, was approved by the senate, by the narrow majority of one vote.

After a three-day fight, in which the Progressives joined with many Republicans in opposing the restricted presidential term, the senate adopted the original Works resolution by a vote of 47 to 23.

Chamberlain, of Oregon, and Works, of California, were the only Pacific Coast senators who supported the single term resolution on its final passage. Those voting against it were Borah, Idaho; Bourne, Oregon; and Jones and Poindexter, Washington.

Just how the next house will receive this proposed change in legislation cannot be foretold. The vote shows that it has been treated as a political question by senators. Some of the most influential Republican senators avoided it and in all probability the feeling in the senate that the time has come when some limitation must be put on possible ambitions of men will move the house to adopt the resolution.

Tariff Hearings End.

The house ways and means committee has completed all hearings on tariff revision. Monday the Democratic members began framing the new Democratic bill which is to replace the Payne-Aldrich law. They will keep steadily at the work from now on until the Sixty-third congress convenes. Probably a few days after the new house is organized the revision bill will be ready for presentation.

The biggest cut, it is said, will be made on wool, leather and agricultural products.

Raw wool, under "Schedule K," the biggest item of the whole tariff revision, it is stated, will be put on the free list. This will be satisfactory to the manufacturers who declared before the committee that the present duty did not now protect them from competition.

Carded wool manufacturers, however, declare that the duty is necessary to their existence.

Leather is also due for a revision downward—probably to the free list.

Compensation Act Reported On.

A favorable report on the senate workmen's compensation act, amended to make it apply to employees of express companies as well as to those of railroads, and to give state courts concurrent jurisdiction with federal courts in its enforcement, was agreed upon by the house judiciary committee.

The proposed law would prescribe specific amounts of compensation to be paid by railroads and express companies to any employee disabled by an accident while on duty.

Resolution Aimed at Wm. J. Burns.

Representative Ferris, of Oklahoma, chairman of the house public lands committee, has taken steps which he hopes will result in giving publicity to the tactics pursued by William J. Burns in selecting federal juries in Oregon during the land-fraud prosecutions. Mr. Ferris introduced a resolution calling on the attorney-general to submit to congress all affidavits, charges, corroborative evidence, letters and other official documents upon which was based President Taft's pardon of Willard N. Jones, together with Attorney-General Wickensham's letter recommending Jones' pardon.

Pension Plan Proposed.

A system of old age retirement for employees of the postal service was proposed by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in an amendment offered to the postoffice appropriation bill. It would give the postoffice department authority to grant "indefinite leave of absence" to an employee who became incapacitated for actual work with annual pay at the rate of $600.

National Capital Briefs.

A bill authorizing the construction of a $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial temple on the banks of the Potomac passed the house.

An appeal was made by women to the congressional elections committee for passage of the bill to give women the right to vote for representatives in congress.

Believing the Pacific coast cities will be flooded with immigrants when the Panama canal opens, Congressman Humphrey has asked for an appropriation of $750,000 for an immigration station at Seattle.

Senator Jackson of Maryland has introduced a bill proposing a plan for federal cooperation with the states for highway improvements. The bill would authorize the government to pay half the cost of improving highways used by mail carriers and would appropriate $10,000,000 annually for the work.

WILSON ACCEPTS STUDENTS ESCORT

New York.—Woodrow Wilson accepted the offer of the students of Princeton University to escort him from his home in Princeton to the white house on the day he is inaugurated.

A century ago Princeton gave its last president to the nation—James Madison. The centenary will be celebrated in a unique programme, to which Mr. Wilson gave his consent, when Paul F. Myers, a Princeton senior, rode on the train with him to New York and outlined the details on behalf of the students.

The Princeton youths will charter two special trains, of 13 cars each, on March 3. One car will be put at the disposal of the president-elect and his family and accompanying newspaper men.

The students, more than 1000 strong, will take Mr. Wilson direct to his hotel on arrival at Washington, and will attend the smoker given that night by the Princeton Alumni Association of Washington.

WOMEN USE SLUNGSHOT

Unique Weapon Causes Damage and Leads to Arrest.

London.—The suffragettes have adopted the slungshot as a weapon in their campaign. With it they hurl heavy leaden discs stamped: "Votes for Women." Because of the weapon's newness, their aim is not good, and the damage thus far caused has not been great, but the disc is said by doctors to be capable of killing a man.

An actress named "Jacky" Melford was charged at the police court with bombarding shop windows with one of these catapults from the top of an omnibus. She was fined $10 or a month's imprisonment. Her father paid the fine. Several thousand letters were destroyed in fires set by the women to the contents of mail boxes.

FOLA LA FOLLETTE IMMUNE

Addresses Garment Workers; Some of Her Listeners Are Jailed.

New York.—Caustic criticism of the police was the keynote of a brief address made to the striking girl garment workers by Lola La Follette, daughter of Senator Robert La Follette.

"You girls are much better organized than the police of the city," she said. "You use better methods in your work. You fight with discipline, while the police fight like a disorganized army. The public's sympathy is with you workers and you will undoubtedly win this strike."

Miss La Follette's remarks were greeted with cheers. After leaving the hall she went again to the picket line and urged the girls to keep up their courage in face of drastic action of the police. Miss La Follette appeared anxious to get herself arrested, but the police were evidently instructed to avoid having any trouble with the Wisconsin senator's daughter. Although girls were arrested who merely stood on the sidewalks and listened to her suggestions, she was avoided.

Home Rule Wins in Ulster.

Londonderry, Ireland.—The final returns from the bye-election show that David C. Hogg, Nationalist, was elected to parliament, receiving 2699 votes to 2642 for Colonel H. A. Rockingham, Unionist, a majority of only 57 in a total poll of 5341.

The victory of the home rulers gives them a majority of members of parliament from the province of Ulster in the house of commons.

EDITOR IS IN CONTEMPT

Colonel Nelson of Kansas City Star, Adjudged in Contempt.

Kansas City, Mo.—An appeal to the court of appeals on a habeas corpus writ is the only thing that kept William R. Nelson, owner of the Kansas City Star, multi-millionaire, long a powerful political factor in Missouri and Kansas and staunch supporter of Theodore Roosevelt in the last election, out of jail. Nelson was found guilty of contempt of court and sentenced to one day in jail by Judge J. A. Guthrie of the circuit court, for publishing an article in his newspaper which Judge Guthrie decided was a "sneer at the courts, at the judges and at legal procedure." He also held that it was "contemptuous" and an "open insult."

Castro Free For Time.

New York.—Cipriano Castro, ex-president of Venezuela, is temporarily a free man under writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Holt in the federal court.

Irish Home Rule Bill Up to Lords. London.—Passed by the house of commons by the usual government majority of 110 votes, the Irish home rule bill is awaiting its second reading in the house of lords.
